One dataset, four decisions, 171-fold range

Within a single sample, definitions alone span 22–125×; across samples the extreme reaches 171×.

Each row is a choice that must be made before any viral fraction can be reported.

Fold ranges are measured in this dataset with the other dimensions held fixed; they are not strictly multiplicative. Values are read from Table 1 at run time.